

HARDWICK

Memorial Day Program One of Best Ever Arranged.

Hardwick observed Memorial day with one of the best arranged programs of exercises commencing at the day that has ever been recorded since the first of Memorial day exercises. Though the weather did not open auspiciously in the morning, it did not grow worse, and the program was carried out as planned. Sixty boy scouts, fully uniformed and present in a most soldierly appearance, marched from the scout room to the Memorial building at 10:30 a. m., and acted as escort to the Sons of Veterans, five in number, to the Maple street cemetery, where the soldiers' graves were decorated, returning therefrom to the Memorial building and disbanding until afternoon. At 1:30 the line of march was from the Memorial building to the Main street cemetery. The procession was again led by the scout company of this place and East Hardwick. Following the scouts were 40 Roca and Toh Yallani campfire girls, then 20 Pathfinder girls of the Baptist church, Sons of Veterans, six Grand Army men in autos, W. A. Dutton read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Judge F. H. Taylor presided. The procession was the finest that Hardwick has ever had on any Memorial day, and in a straight line it reached from the bridge to the schoolhouse.

The many friends of B. J. Mulcahy regret to hear of his illness. A trained nurse is caring for him.

Mrs. George Anderson of Burlington has been a recent guest of friends here.

Parties of young people from here went to Wolcott Friday evening to attend the play and dance for the benefit of the Red Cross of that town and some went to Morrisville to attend the dance. The boy scout orchestra of this place furnished music for the dance and play at Wolcott.

Dana O. Bean left Friday morning for Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., where he hopes to pass the required examination for entrance into the army.

Laverne White was in Burlington Friday to find out his prospects for enlistment in the naval reserve.

P. C. Kittredge is home from his work in Springfield.

Orrin Hile and wife of Springfield, Mass., are visiting relatives in town for a time.

Raymond Gilman is home from Camp Greene, N. C., for a furlough lasting until about July 2, to help his father, J. M. Gilman, in agricultural work. He expects to get a further furlough to July 25.

Miss Florence Deane of Plainfield has been a guest at Wade Benjamin's the past week.

Miss Florence Taylor is home from her music studies in Boston for a vacation.

The Roca campfire girls last Wednesday evening at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Raymond Carick, tendered a banquet in honor of four members of the fire who are also members of the graduating class of Hardwick academy this year. It was a pleasant affair and many toasts were offered and responded to.

Miss Emily Kull, the hospital matron, has returned from her two weeks' vacation, passed with relatives in Philadelphia and Pottsville, Pa.

James Mackie of Springfield was home from his work in that place the latter part of the week.

Miss Hazel Downing of Springfield visited friends here a part of this week. The boy scout orchestra will furnish music this evening for a Red Cross dance at the N. E. O. P. hall.

Don't forget the "Jolly Jester Joke-smiths," a riot of fun and hilarity, at the opera house Friday evening, June 7, for the benefit of the Red Cross, the hospital and boy scouts.

Rev. E. G. French of Danville called on friends in town the latter part of the week.

State's Attorney Campbell of St. Johnsbury was in town Friday.

Alton Parks and wife of Morrisville visited in town Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bell of North Jay, Me., are in town for a few days' visit.

Miss Catherine Cate was home over the holiday from her work in Burlington.

R. H. Blake was home from his work in Swanton Thursday.

Charlie Jones of Springfield, Mass., is visiting here and in Hyde Park this week.

Mrs. Olie Green of Morrisville was in town last Thursday.

Eugene Clowse was home from his school duties in Richmond a few days the latter part of the week.

EAST MONTPELIER

John Gallison and family have again returned to town. They will live in the Wheelock block.

John Peats of Geneva, Ohio, a former resident of East Montpelier, called on his old friends Wednesday.

Memorial day passed very quietly in East Montpelier. Some went fishing; others went visiting and some entertained friends at home, and some worked in the same old way.

Rev. A. S. Phillips, who spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Lee Chandler, returned Saturday to his church in Huntington, P. Q.

Your correspondent had the pleasure Wednesday of meeting in Montpelier, Joel Wheeler, the once popular clerk in Claire Dudley's store. He went to St. Johnsbury from this place, where he had a lucrative position in one of the leading stores. At present he is helping win the war on his father's farm in North Calais, while his brother is with the U. S. army in France.

Despite the fact that Oliver Fifield does his bit on the troublesome hill on the Barre road and that Wednesday it received the careful attention of the road commissioner and his crew, that hill is still a menace to the traveling public and to autoists especially.

Foxes are numerous and hungry in this vicinity, as several depredations in neighboring poultry yards bear witness.

The schools in the village took a recess from Wednesday afternoon till Monday morning.

W. A. Curtis and family spent Thursday at Grotton pond.

Fred Townsend recently purchased a pair of fine dappled gray work horses.

H. G. Townsend attended a meeting of brotherhood of maintenance of way employees at Barre Saturday.

Mrs. Cynthia Hoisington Died Suddenly at Age of 79.

Mrs. Cynthia Hoisington, aged 79 years, died very suddenly and apparently without a struggle sometime Saturday. By choice she lived alone during the summer in her own home. During the winter she lived with her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Morse, at her home only about 40 rods distant. Mrs. Morse, with her husband, their daughter and some guests, spent Saturday on a fishing and pleasure trip in Rochester. On their return Mrs. Morse tried to call on her mother, but finding the doors locked and getting no response to her calls she went to her own home and with her husband and daughter returned and forced an entrance. They found Mrs. Hoisington's body lying in a perfectly natural sleeping posture in her bed. Health Officer O. V. Greene was called and said that death undoubtedly was due to heart exhaustion resulting from old age. Though frail for several months, Mrs. Hoisington had been very active, doing her work and visiting her daughter often. She was born in Rochester and 64 years ago was married to Aaron Hoisington of that town. They lived together 50 years and he died here 14 years ago. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock at her daughter's home, Rev. J. Wesley Miller officiating, with interment at Southview cemetery in Randolph beside her husband's body.

Mrs. Etta Byam came last evening from Montpelier to visit her sister, Mrs. W. C. LaRock.

Mrs. Cora Bradley is able to ride out after spending several months at the sanatorium.

Mr. Elmer H. Stoddard has been confined to her bed since Friday with a hard attack of lumbago.

An enthusiastic war meeting was held last evening at the town hall, three or four hundred people attending, including many from adjoining towns. Congressman Porter H. Dale was the speaker and he presented an impressive array of facts from observation during a visit to the war zone last winter. Mrs. Dale accompanied the congressman. Rev. W. C. Harvey conducted devotions and introduced the speaker.

Mrs. B. H. Smead returned Saturday from visiting her mother in Northfield a few days.

W. H. Allen is at home from his work in Windsor for a few days. He is moving his family from John L. Parrott's house into one of E. D. Gilson's houses.

J. W. George and B. O. Johns are here from Concord, N. H., where they work in the granite sheds.

John Kleimola is moving his family to Keene, N. H., after living here six years.

Gerald Bryant of Durham, N. C., who was here last summer and pleased many audiences with his performances on the violin, has enlisted as a musician in an artillery regiment, and is at a camp in Kentucky for preliminary training.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Brown of Sharon accompanied Congressman and Mrs. Dale and, with them, were guests at the Baerum house.

Rev. G. F. Fortier, superintendent of the Universalist state convention, arrived Saturday night and was in Barnard yesterday.

Raymond C. O'Neil of St. Albans is the new night operator at the Central Vermont railway station.

MARSHFIELD

Save Wednesday night for the Nellie Gills "Fighting for Freedom" is a stirring Civil war play, full of excitement, romance and good comedy, and historically correct. Uncle Sam gets a little over 10 per cent of the gross receipts, and the Red Cross will receive another 10 per cent—adv.

There is a possibility that some way may be found so that trolley service in Rutland will not have to be curtailed. The Rutland Business Men's association has taken the matter up.

WATERBURY

Funeral of Sumner B. Leland Held at Middlesex Friday.

The funeral of Sumner Bliss Leland was held from the Unitarian church in Middlesex Friday afternoon, Rev. Arthur Abbott of Moretown officiating. The bearers were C. C. Graves and Raymond Buzzell of this town, Stanley Buzzell of Waitsfield and Arthur Mead of Danbury, Conn., who came with the body as a representative of the Masonic lodge in that city. A telegram announcing Mr. Leland's sudden death was received by Stanley Buzzell of Waitsfield, the Buzzell home being his Vermont home and where he expected to come in about two weeks for a time. Although cousins, the deceased and Mrs. Buzzell were brought up in the same home and were like brother and sister. They had known that he was suffering with diabetes. Tuesday after eating dinner he complained of not feeling well at his hotel. Physicians were summoned who, in turn, ordered an ambulance to take him to the hospital. Although near, and the start was made at once, he passed away before the hospital was reached. Sumner Bliss Leland was born in Middlesex Oct. 14, 1856, the son of Jarvis and Hannah Bliss Leland. His boyhood days were spent on the old Leland farm at Middlesex Center, and he was educated in the public schools and when 16 was graduated from Goddard seminary, class of 1873. He then entered the store of Foster, Besse & Co., where he stayed for several years. Later he went into business in Danbury, Conn., under the firm name of Leland & Meader, having stores in Dapbury, Bristol and Torrington. In 1905 he sold out his interest and has since been connected with Elks Green, Walpole and Groveland, all in Danbury. He was a member of the Elks, Masons and Red Men, the service in Danbury being held at the Elks' home. Mr. Leland was a man of a kind heart, generous and helpful to many. He had always kept his interest in his native state, and in those to whose home he always came.

Miss Jane Boicourt has received a cablegram from her father, Rev. William L. Boicourt, in France, which read: "Five birthday kisses from Daddy Boicourt."

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McGrath were Eugene McGrath of California, Robert Mahven of New York, Miss Agnes McGrath and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Neve and daughter of Burlington.

W. F. and M. D. Davis have purchased of W. D. Davis his home in Colbyville, Me., and Mrs. Davis will spend the summer with their son and family, R. C. Davis.

Among familiar faces at the inn, people who have returned for a part or the whole of the summer are C. W. Lindsey, Mrs. Delana Miss MacDonald, Mrs. MacCarthy of Montreal. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Robinson of Washington, D. C., have also arrived. Among other guests are Mr. and Mrs. Delany and son of Ottawa, Lieutenant and Mrs. Strindther of Montreal, who are on their honeymoon. Lieut. Strindther is in the aviation corps.

Miss Bertha Raleigh of the inn is spending a few days in Boston.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry Dillingham was held from her late home Wednesday afternoon, Rev. W. F. Hill of the Center officiating; the bearers were E. J. Groat, F. W. Powers, J. H. Ather and C. A. Gibbs. Mrs. Dillingham, who was the widow of Henry Dillingham, who was for many years the efficient rural route carrier on route No. 2, died at her home in Colbyville Monday night at 10 o'clock.

She had been in poor health for over a year and for the past few months she had been slowly failing with cancerous trouble. The deceased was born in Berlin 56 years ago, the daughter of Orman and Amanda (Lamphear) Braham. Her maiden name was Nellie Braham and on Dec. 3, 1881, she married Mr. Dillingham, who died four years ago. She is survived by two children, Kezer Dillingham of Montpelier and Jessie, wife of Homer Sherman of this place, also four grandchildren, two brothers, Carl and DeWitt Braham of Northfield, and two sisters, Mrs. Edward Runney of Middlesex and Mrs. George Patterson of Montpelier. Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Runney, Mr. and Mrs. George Runney, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Maxham and Mr. and Mrs. Elery Maxham of Middlesex, Mrs. Henry Daley of Calais, Mr. and Mrs. John Leslie and Mrs. Alfred Cormier of Montpelier, Mrs. Mary Harrington, Mrs. Mary Coffin and daughter and Mrs. Charles Patterson of Berlin, and Carl and DeWitt Braham of Northfield.

Mrs. Lewis Morse is visiting her son, Frank, and wife in Springfield, Mass. A pleasant evening was passed at the home of Leslie Smith recently, when some of the hospital friends of the Misses Oma and Olie Thomas gathered before they left for their home in Woodbury, where they each have positions. Music and cards made the evening one of enjoyment as well as of good wishes for the young women, who have been for some time in training as nurses at the Vermont state hospital.

Mrs. Ida Vallenburg, a national speaker for the W. C. T. U., gave a series of addresses here last week, which showed her ability as a speaker and organizer, several new members being received into the local W. C. T. U.

Attorney H. Duane Bruce of Syracuse, N. Y., a prominent corporation lawyer of that city, has been a guest of his sister, Mrs. Elson F. Palmer, on Elm street.

Mrs. Charles H. Haines of Nashua, N. H., a former resident here and member of Marquis de Lafayette chapter, D. A. R., is now regent of the chapter in Nashua, N. H.

The ladies' aid of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. F. L. Easton Wednesday afternoon, June 5.

Wednesday is registration day for all male citizens not in the service, who have become of age since last registration day. The town clerk's office, both here and in Duxbury, will be open continuously throughout the day and evening.

Several are planning to attend the Washington County Association of Congregational Churches, which meets Tuesday at Waitsfield. Rev. V. L. Smith of the churches here speaks on "Unifying the Social Community."

The annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society meets at the Methodist Episcopal church Friday, June 7; afternoon session at 4 p. m.; supper will be served at 6 o'clock; and at 7:30 Miss Clementine Butler, a returned missionary from India and Mexico, will be the speaker.

J. F. Honan has resigned his duties as carrier of the mail from the station to the postoffice, and the contract has been given to E. G. Miller. Mr. Honan has been carrier for the past 11 years, making 30,000 round trips.

Duxbury, under the leadership of H. J. Patterson, also went over the top on the Red Cross drive to 33 per cent, over the allotment. A check from Burton Ward, who remembers in many ways the native town of his father, the late H. O. Ward, gave a substantial help towards this amount.

ORANGE

Will Peaslee of Boston was in town the first of the week, called here by the death of his brother, E. L. Peaslee, which occurred Monday, May 27.

James Slora, jr., left the last of the week for Fort Slocum with the Orange county draftees.

We have a good start for a town service flag. Will those who wish to give something toward it please leave their contributions with Flora Peake right away, that we may have the flag up? It is also requested that those who have members of their families in the service will kindly notify her of their names and the branch of service they are in, so that each man will be represented by a star and at the same time a correct record may be kept for future reference.

William Chamberlin and family are spending a few days at Berlin pond.

Mrs. Alma Cutler and son, Theron, are visiting at her daughter's, Mrs. Roswell Farnham.

Through some mistake, the Orange Liberty loan quota read $52, instead of $5,200, and the amount raised was $8,250, instead of $82,50.

Mrs. George Hosmer of Chicago and Mrs. Howe of Montpelier called on old friends and at old homesteads Sunday.

The ladies' aid will meet with Mrs. H. R. Whitcomb Thursday afternoon.

Registration Notice.

All male persons residing in the town of Orange, in the county of Orange, and state of Vermont, who have attained their 21st birthday since June 5, 1917, and on or before the 5th day of June, 1918, are hereby notified to meet and register at the town clerk's office in said Orange between the hours of 7 o'clock a. m. and 9 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday, June 5, 1918.

Dated at Orange this 31st day of May, 1918.

Flora A. Peake,
Town Clerk and Registrar.

RANDOLPH

Edwin McIntosh Dies, Following Operation for Blood Poisoning.

Edwin McIntosh died at 7:30 at the sanatorium Saturday night, following an operation for the amputation of his left arm, from which he never rallied. Mr. McIntosh received an injury to one of his fingers on the left hand a few days ago while at work at the Salisbury mill, where he had been employed for the last 40 years. It was not considered serious, but in a few days blood poisoning developed and extended up his arm and there seemed to be no alternative but amputation. Mr. McIntosh was in poor health, having long been a sufferer from diabetes, and it was thought at the time that the result would be doubtful. Mr. McIntosh was the only son of the late Samuel McIntosh, who died at Northfield at an advanced age last year, and is survived by the widow and one son, Earl McIntosh, who resides with them. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made known.

Rev. Joseph Hamilton went to White River Junction Saturday night to remain over Sunday with his son, P. J. Hamilton, and family, and to-day went to Grotton to attend the funeral of the late Judge Hall of that place, whose death occurred Friday morning.

Mrs. Ella Kibbee of Somerville, Mass., who has been with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jehiel Williams, left Saturday for her home, this being her first visit here in the last 10 years.

Miss Mabel Hamilton, who has been at Derby for several weeks, teaching, has returned home for the summer.

Mrs. Lilla Dunham left Saturday for Bethel, where she will visit Mrs. Luella Kidder of that place.

Mrs. Will Pitkin and daughter, Miss Grace Pitkin, went to Norfolk Downs, Mass., Saturday to visit the son and brother, Clarence Pitkin, and family.

A community sing is being arranged by the Methodist ladies' aid society, to be held at the church Tuesday evening. A fine program is being arranged, and following this ice cream and cake will be served to the company. The Epworth league of the same church holds a social at the parsonage Thursday night, to which all are invited.

Mrs. Louis Mazzolini and family have moved into the lower tenement in the Goding house, recently purchased by George Allen.

The graduation exercises of Randolph high school will be held on June 14. The program will be given later.

WAITS RIVER

The regular Red Cross meeting will be held at 2 p. m. on Tuesday, June 4.

Six Red Cross members attended the county convention at Chelsea on May 28. A good time was reported.

Church services as usual next Sunday, June 9. Special for evening, Rev. C. A. Boyd of Burlington.

A weird, thrilling adventure story, embracing all the fascinating elements of screen romance. The New York Tribune said: "Tarzan of the Apes" must be seen to be appreciated.

Follow the most fascinating character the screen has ever known in his travels through the jungle. See his combats with lions, tigers, leopards, apes and gorillas. His struggle with the giant cannibal. His ride on the elephant's head in the raid on the natives, and his beautiful romance with the girl who can be ever seen. It starts, thrills, amuses.
